

WILD

AT WORSBROUGH

WELCOME!

Wild at Worsbrough is a programme of events that will run from May to September and showcase all that Worsbrough Mill and Country Park has to offer.

Discover everything from our vast array of wildlife, plants and biodiversity, opportunities for wildplay, learning and creative fun, wild walks, weekend activities and ways to support as well of course ways to explore our mill, flour production process and history.

EVENTS

Wild at Worsbrough Launch Event

Sunday 2 May, 5.30am

Live on our social media channels

We will be celebrating the launch of 'Wild at Worsbrough' with a very special live event! Join us for International Dawn Chorus Day, where from the comfort of your home you can experience the magical sound of the dawn chorus live from our country park.

Be serenaded by the many species of birds as they sing together in unison, and on hand will be our very own bird expert offering fascinating information and insights. There will also be talks on the history of the mill, flour and astounding array of biodiversity. Also joining us live will be poet, Ian McMillan, with a specially created verse on the dawn chorus – it's not to be missed.

Story Telling Trail

Story Telling Trail
