WORSBROUGH MILL CHRISTMAS TRAIL STORY PAGE 1

Ben the Worsbrough Wren was flying over the Mill when he heard the ducks quacking, the willow tits chirping and the robins whistling.

“I wonder what all the commotion is?” he thought to himself. So Ben swooped down and perched himself next to Noel the Robin on the allotment fence.

“What’s all this noise for?” asked Ben the Worsbrough Wren.

“He’s here!” tweeted Noel.

“Who’s here?” Ben asked.

“Haven’t you heard? Santa is at Worsbrough Mill!” Noel chirped, “I’ve seen him myself. Oh I must go and let everyone know,” and Noel flew off.

“How exciting!” thought Ben the Worsbrough Wren, “I must go and find Santa. I’d love to see him.” So Ben flew up towards the Millers Tea Room. Opposite the Tea Room in the trees he found 1.

“Excuse me, I’m looking for Santa. Have you seen him anywhere?” Ben the Worsbrough Wren asked.

“I’ve just been freshly baked from flour ground here at Worsbrough Mill. I’m afraid I’ve not seen Santa yet. Perhaps 2 may be able to help you. He’s come from the North Pole and will know more about Santa’s whereabouts than me.” So Ben the Worsbrough Wren thanked The Gingerbread Man then he flew along the path towards the Mill Pond. There, hiding behind a corner he found 2.

“Excuse me, I’m looking for Santa. Have you seen him anywhere?” Ben the Worsbrough Wren asked.

“I’ve not seen Santa but I have just seen 3 I’m sure he will know where Santa is. He has just crossed the Mill Pond bridge. If you go quickly you should find him there.”

So Ben the Worsbrough Wren thanked The Snowman then he flew across the Mill Pond bridge. On the other side he found 3.

“Excuse me, I’m looking for Santa. Have you seen him anywhere?” Ben the Worsbrough Wren asked.

“You’ve just missed him. He has flown off in his sleigh. But 4 always guides and protects him on his way as he travels the skies in his sleigh. I’ve seen him hovering over the water. He will know where you can find Santa.”

So Ben the Worsbrough Wren thanked Santa’s Elf then he flew across the reservoir. In the middle hovering over the water he found 4.

“Excuse me, I’m looking for Santa. Have you seen him anywhere?” Ben the Worsbrough Wren asked.

“Santa is on his way to leave presents under the Christmas Tree. He always follows 5 which guides him on his way. To find Santa you will need to follow 5 too.”

So Ben the Worsbrough Wren thanked The Christmas Angel and then he flew all the way across to the other side of the reservoir. To the right he could see something shimmering brightly near the Trans Pennine Trail. There he found 5 shining its light all the way down towards The Mill. The Christmas Star lit the path so brightly Ben could see something glowing red in the distance.

“It must be 6 guiding Santa in his sleigh,” thought Ben the Worsbrough Wren. So he flew down the hill towards the Mill and on his way, grazing near the fields, he found 6.

“Excuse me, I’m looking for Santa. Have you seen him anywhere?” Ben the Worsbrough Wren asked.

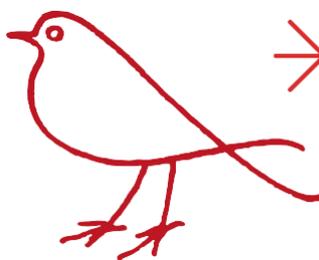

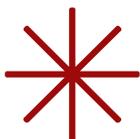

“Yes I have,” said Rudolph, “He is not far away. He has parked his 7 on the other side of the bridge near the learning hut.”

So Ben the Worsbrough Wren thanked Rudolph, then he flew past the weir and over the bridge. There he found Santa’s 7.

“Santa must be near his sleigh,” thought Ben. Then he saw a 8 lying on the ground. “Santa must have dropped it, which means he must have gone this way,” Ben chirped. Then he flew off in the direction of the present. He flew around the corner, through the gate and to his delight he saw a magnificent 9 and 10.
